

dropping

in

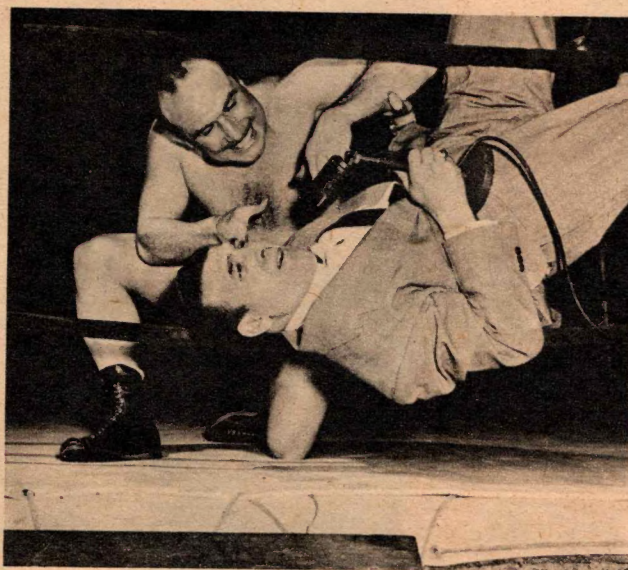

on

DUMONT

Behind the scenes at this network's "window of the world," the stars have as much fun working as you do watching.

Roxanne (TV's most photogenic model, says U. S. Camera magazine) is 22, stands 5'8", has a 36 bust, 23 waist, and 34 hips. On Twenty Questions, she does commercials.

Popularizing wrestling has brought Dennis James fame, fun and an occasional bad moment. So young is video, that his six-years make him a veteran. His hobby: summer stock.

Helmut Dantine, one of TV's most eligible men about town, checks his Shadow of the Cloak script. Vienna-born, he's 33, 6' tall.

Al Hodge, who's rarely photographed without his Captain Video get-up, relaxes here in mufti. Once radio's Green Hornet, he's 6'2", has been a track star and a naval lieutenant.

June Havoc, guesting with Jackie Gleason on Cavalcade of Stars, takes time out to describe her menagerie: five dogs, two cats and six birds.

Xavier Cugat's chihuahuas bring him luck on weekly Cavalcade of Bands. He's from Barcelona, Spain, played violin in opera at 12.